For borders, cut:

Two strips 2” by 48-1/2” and two strips 2” by 45-1/2” of fabric E.
Two strips 3-1/2” by 48-1/2” and two strips 3-1/2” by 54-1/2” of fabric C.

Block Assembly:

For block 1 sew: (right sides together)

For block 2 sew: (right sides together)

For block 3 sew: (right sides together)
One triangle of fabric B with one of fabric C. Make four units. Following the block diagram above, sew one of the units with one square of fabric F and then with another unit for the top row. Sew one square of fabric F with one square of fabric C and then with one square of fabric F for the middle row. Sew one of the units with one square of fabric F with and then with another unit for the bottom row. Make 4 blocks.

Quilt Top Assembly:

Following the quilt diagram above, start piecing the first row in the sequence shown. Go ahead with the second row and all the remaining until you complete all the rows. Then, start sewing all the rows in the order specified being careful to match the seams. Start attaching first border by sewing two “ strips of fabric E on the left and right sides of the quilt top. Sew the remaining two strips on the top and bottom of the quilt top. Attach the second border of fabric C in the same way you did with the first border.

Layer, quilt and bind as desired.
