A large, rectangular patchwork pillow is the central focus. It is composed of several triangular and rectangular fabric pieces. The patterns include: white fabric with thin orange vertical stripes; solid light orange fabric; pink fabric with small orange strawberries; green fabric with large dark blue and yellow polka dots; and white fabric with thin orange vertical stripes. The pieces are sewn together with visible orange thread. Behind this patchwork pillow, a solid orange pillow is partially visible. The pillows are resting on a white, textured surface, possibly a bedspread or rug. The background is a dark blue vertical panel flanked by light grey walls.
