

The image displays two square pillows with vibrant, geometric patterns. The top pillow, resting on a white stool, features a bold 'X' pattern created by intersecting diagonal bands of red, orange, yellow, teal, and dark blue. The bottom pillow, placed on the floor, has a design of diagonal stripes in shades of teal, olive green, light blue, yellow, and coral. Both pillows are made of a textured fabric, possibly cotton or linen, and are set against a plain white background.
