

A photograph of three handmade patchwork fabric baskets. The largest basket is rectangular and stands upright, featuring horizontal bands of yellow, grey, red, and light blue fabric with visible stitching. To its left is a stack of four books. In front of the large basket is a shorter, wider basket with a pink interior, made of yellow, teal, and grey fabric, with a white measuring tape draped over its side. To the right is a small, round basket with a red lid, made of light-colored fabric with a pink and teal patchwork section. A clear ruler is leaning against the back of the large basket, and several sewing pins are scattered on the wooden surface in the foreground.
