CONSTRUCTION

Sew all rights sides together with ¼" seam allowance.

Flying Geese

- Place a 2½" square from fabric A to the right edge of a 4½" x 2½" rectangle from fabric D. Mark a diagonal line from the top left corner to the bottom right corner of fabric A square. Sew through the drawn line, trim ¼" away from the seam and press.
- Place another 2½" square from fabric A and place it to the left edge of the sewing piece. Mark a diagonal line from the top right corner to the bottom left corner of fabric A square. Sew through the line and trim ¼" away from the seam. Press.
- Repeat the same step one more time to get a total of two (2) ADA flying geese combinations.

BINDING

Sew rights sides together.

- Cut enough strips 1½" wide by the width of the fabric F to make a final strip 88" long. Start sewing the binding strip in the middle of one of the sides of the quilt, placing the strip right side down and leaving an approximated 5" tail. Sew with ¼" seam allowance (using straight stitch), aligning the strip's raw edge with the quilt top's raw edge.

- Stop stitching ¼" before the edge of the quilt (DIAGRAM B1). Clip the threads. Remove the quilt from under the machine presser foot. Fold the strip in a motion of 45° and upward, pressing with your fingers (DIAGRAM B2). Hold this fold with your finger, bring the strip down in line with the next edge, making a horizontal fold that aligns with the top edge of the quilt (DIAGRAM B3). Start sewing at ¼" of the border, stitching all the layers. Do the same in the four corners of the quilt.

- Stop stitching before you reach the last 5 or 6 inches. Cut the threads and remove the quilt from under the machine presser foot. Lay the loose ends of the binding flat along the quilt edge, folding the ends back on themselves where they meet. Press them together to form a crease. Using this crease as the stitching line, sew the two open ends of the binding with right sides together (you can help yourself marking with a pencil if the crease is difficult to see).

- Trim seam to ¼" and press open. Complete the sewing. Turn binding to back of the quilt, turn raw edge inside and stitch by hand using blind stitch.
Congratulations & enjoy
